JULY 2024

Latest News from the Ranch Estates at Scottsdale Newsletter

July newsletter

July is here and so is the heat! We want to remind everyone to stay hydrated through these hot months.

We are excited for all the fun activities and programs we have coming up this month as June did not disappoint with the Father's Day bbq, Teacher's Luncheon, and Men's Health Talk. Ronda Rosenau, Life Enrichment Director, continues to do a great job keeping everyone active and having fun!

We have some great celebrations in July with 4th of July BBQ celebration, National Chocolate Day, International Day of Friendship, National Ice Cream Sundae month and so much more!

I want to remind everyone that if you think The Ranch Estates at Scottsdale is a great place to live, tell a friend or neighbor. The greatest compliment is a referral from you! We enjoy what we do and enjoy doing it for you!

As always, thank you for choosing to make The Ranch Estates at Scottsdale your home.

Sincerely,
Sheila Hernandez, Executive Director

Community Updates

Have you checked out the calendar lately to see if you are missing out on anything? We have been busy doing lots of fun things. We have a presenter that has many different subjects to speak about on a monthly basis. Don't miss out on these! We started a U. S. Map Bingo that was a lot of fun and makes us think a little. Our Fathers Day Breakfast along with Dunkin Donuts and Entertainment was enjoyed by some of our men. Some new crafts and the making of birthday cards are always a great time. With summer being here, we are enjoying many ways of having ice cream. We enjoy going to the theater and would love to have more participate. Tickets for the small theater we frequent sell out very quickly, so if you are interested, always sign up right away. The Phoenix Art Museum always has an interesting subject when we can get them here to present. Watch your calendar and the bulletin boards for updates.
